

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

TINA MARIE MOLCILO,
Plaintiff,
v.
CAROLYN W. COLVIN,
Defendant.

Case No. 5:12-cv-06556 HRL

ORDER DIRECTING PLAINTIFF TO SHOW CAUSE WHY THIS CASE
SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

Pro se plaintiff Tina Marie Molcilo filed this Social Security appeal on December 28, 2012. The docket indicates that she has done nothing to proceed with this case since then. Even though defendant's answer belatedly was filed, under the briefing schedule set in the court's Procedural Order for Social Security Review Actions (Dkt. 3), plaintiff's summary judgment motion appears to be long overdue. Although Molcilo is representing herself, that does not excuse her from complying with rules and orders that all litigants are obliged to follow. Accordingly, no later than June 25, 2014, plaintiff shall file a response to this order, telling the court why this case should not be dismissed for her apparent inattention to it.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 5, 2014
